

Peak Lenin Base Camp Tour

Duration: 3 days

You will visit: Osh, Achik Tash, Peak Lenin.

Tour Itinerary:

Day 1: Osh – Achik Tash

Begin your unforgettable adventure in Osh as you head toward the heart of the Pamirs (280km). Travel along a scenic route that winds through the dramatic Chyyrchyk Pass and Alay Valley, offering breathtaking mountain landscapes and glimpses of traditional village life. Pause for a picnic lunch near the village of Ak-Bosogo, surrounded by pristine nature. By afternoon, arrive at the base camp Achik Tash, perched at 3,600 meters above sea level, where the mighty Peak Lenin dominates the horizon. Take in the crisp mountain air and sweeping views before settling into a cozy yurt or tent. Enjoy a warm dinner and an authentic Kyrgyz atmosphere under a sky full of stars.

Day 2: Achik Tash - Peak Lenin

After breakfast, spend the day acclimatizing and exploring the scenic surroundings of Achik-Tash base camp. Start on a 6-kilometer trek through the mountains, where you'll encounter breathtaking panoramic views of the majestic Lenin Peak and the vast alpine landscape. Another serene option is a visit to the picturesque Tulpar-Kul Lake, nestled among alpine meadows and mountain ridges—not far from camp. Enjoy the peaceful ambiance, capture memorable photos, and savor a packed lunch in nature. In the afternoon, return to the international base camp where you'll have free time to relax or continue exploring. As evening falls, enjoy a warm dinner and the cozy atmosphere of the camp. Spend the night under a sky filled with stars, letting the tranquility of the mountains restore your energy.
